Tutoring Experience

For the past three years, I have worked with students from diverse backgrounds, guiding them in A-Level, IGCSE, and AP Maths. My tutoring experience has allowed me to understand students' needs and address complex topics in an approachable manner, particularly in algebra, calculus, and applied mathematics.

Through one-on-one and group sessions, I've helped students achieve exceptional results, especially in preparation for A-Level and GCSE exams. My students have consistently demonstrated improved confidence and grades, thanks to a solid understanding of foundational maths skills.
