Tutoring Experience

For nearly two decades, I've dedicated my career to guiding students through the depths of English Literature, covering various curriculums such as A-Level, GCSE, and AP. My academic background in Germany has equipped me with deep insights into literature analysis, critical thinking, and effective communication skills.

I work closely with students to deepen their understanding of complex texts, spanning genres from classical poetry to modern novels. I have a track record of helping students achieve top marks and develop a passion for literature that extends beyond the classroom.

Beyond exams, I've guided students in understanding historical and cultural contexts of texts, helping them develop a nuanced perspective. Many of my students have gone on to study literature at renowned universities, achieving success through a strong foundation built during our sessions.
